

LAWMAKERS QUIT WORK

Will Remain in Session Until Tuesday.

SESSIONS WILL BE FORMAL

No Quorum Expected in Either Branch, and They Will Meet Only to Allow Signing of Bills—Blackburg Appropriation Wins Out.

To all interests and purposes the Legislature adjourned yesterday until November 10th next at noon, though both bodies will be constructively in session until Tuesday at noon, in order to allow the signing of bills as provided by the Constitution. Business was cut off by a resolution to quit at noon yesterday, and both houses a few moments later adjourned. The Senate adjourned until Tuesday, and the House until noon to-day.

There was but little business of importance in either branch on the last working day of the session. The Senate really did nothing of interest.

The House passed the bill relating to the Blackburg appropriation from $25,000 to $40,000, and also that appropriating $5,000 to the colored Normal School at Petersburg.

The general revenue bill was so amended in the House as to provide for taxing inns and houses of private entertainment, and several other bills were passed, but they were mostly of a local nature.

At the end of the House session, Mr. Polkes, on behalf of his colleagues, presented Captain A. O. Sullivan, the popular doorkeeper, with a handsome gold watch, and the latter in turn presented a most appropriate manner. Many of the members of both houses took the afternoon or night trains for their homes, and but few of them are in the city now.

The Senate.

It was two minutes of 12 legislative time. When the House adjourned yesterday, and ten minutes of noon when the Senate concluded its session, but both bodies the clocks had been turned back and it was really a quarter after 12. The Senate had been only nominally completed for half an hour, having completed action for half an hour, and it was merely waiting for action on the part of the House on the Enactment of the date for adjournment for the recess. At last, Mr. Boaz came over from the House and announced the concurrence by that body in the Senate joint resolution. The announcement was greeted with applause and the Senate adjourned until Tuesday at noon. The session was in compliance with the Constitution which requires that the presiding officers shall sign bills and resolutions.

It was not away day in both houses, and the members were engaged in the signing of the bills on the calendar. Outside, the greenness of the trees and the gentle breeze that through the leaves and was wafted in through the open windows wooed the Senators away, and all were eager for the hour of adjournment. There was a drawing of the session which was dispelled only by a few bills of fun and expense of much merriment. These little incidents and the fun interrupted now and then were the only interruptions to the roll call as committees were dismissed from consideration of bills and they were taken up out of their order and acted on.

There were scarcely thirty Senators present at any time during the day, but among these were Senators Revercomb, who had been absent for several weeks, and Senator Donohoe, who was absent on Thursday.

ROAD LAW FAILS.

Among the bills which failed to get through the Senate was House bill 207 amending section 20 of the Code in relation to a general road law. This was passed by the House.

Senate bill 310, to provide for primary election, was rejected on a vote of 12 to 12. A substitute was offered and ordered printed and then passed by.

The constitutional bill, the constitutional reapportionment bill and the bill to amend the charter of the town of Berkeley, were all passed by.

CELEBRATION TO BEGIN TO-MORROW

Bi-Centennial of Birth of John Wesley to Be Observed.

In every Methodist Church of the city to-morrow there will be held services commemorative of the birth and life of John Wesley, the founder of Methodism. Every sermon from the Methodist pulpits of Richmond will be upon the one theme, "John Wesley."

The services will mark the beginning of the bi-centennial celebration of the birth of Wesley, which celebration will continue through four days, beginning to-morrow morning and ending Wednesday night. To-morrow afternoon a great mass-meeting will be held at Centenary, at which the Rev. J. C. Kilgo, D. D., president of Trinity College, and one of the best known ministers in the church will speak. His subject will be "Evangelical Spirit of Methodism." Arrangements have been made for an overflow meeting at the Grace Street Presbyterian Church.

On Sunday night four mass-meetings will be held, and the subject to be discussed will be "ethicism and Education." The meetings will be at Broad Street, Union Station, Park Place and Central, Manchester.

NEED WHITE COOKS
That Fact Demonstrated by Applicants for Mrs. Hewitt's Services.
"By phone and by mail and by messenger, people applied yesterday for Mrs. Hewitt's services, until more than twenty applications were heard from during the day," said the Rev. George H. Wiley last night. "This reveals two interesting things—one is that the heart of the people of Richmond are responsive; the other is that white cooks are wanted. If there was a 'training home' here where girls and women were taught to cook well and instructed in housekeeping in a general way, I am sure from the letters I get from all over the State that fifty of them each year could find homes with such salary that at the end of twelve months they would have as much money as those who work in factories. With vast advantages in other ways, I am glad that the ladies who have done so much in our mission have taken up this matter, and intend to do something in this direction. Mrs. Hewitt will get a good home."

WILL DECIDE TO-DAY
Judge Keith Asked to Determine a Knotty Problem.
The position of quarantine officer for the city of Newport News is upon the air, so to speak, and President Keith, of the Supreme Court, has been asked to say whether Dr. W. S. Hobson, or Dr. W. F. Creasy, is entitled to perform his duties. The schedule of the new Constitution, extended the terms of certain officers and Dr. Hobson and his friends hold that he comes in that class. If there had been no new Constitution, Dr. Hobson's term would have expired on May 1st, and Governor Montague named Dr. Creasy to take office on that day. The matter has been before Judge Blackstone, of the Circuit Court, and has been decided by him in favor of Dr. Creasy, and it is upon appeal from that tribunal that it comes to the Court of Appeals. Judge Keith will probably announce his decision in the case to-day.

THE TOBACCO MARKET
Report of Mr. Vaughan for the Past Week—Light Receipts.
Concerning the conditions on the tobacco market during the past week, Messrs. L. B. Vaughan & Co., proprietors of Grimesway Warehouse, say as follows: "This has been a repetition of the past several weeks of light receipts and sales, owing to lack of handling seasons and at higher prices. The best lot selling at $18, seventy-seven packages of the Virginia Exchange. The weather has been unfavorable for the plants and in some places reported scarce and none planted. Planting commenced last year on the 4th of May, but over a month has elapsed before the planting already delayed. Earlier planting means early cutting or lighter colored, milder leaf, better suited to our trade. We do not change quotations."

MARTIN IN WASHINGTON

Would Discuss Neither National nor State Politics.

MONUMENT FOR DR. REED

Movement on Foot to Erect One to the Virginian Who Put Stigma on the Mosquito—Congressman Glass on Hard Cider.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, No. 1417 G Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., May 15th.
Senator Martin is in town to-night and will remain until to-morrow. To The Times-Dispatch correspondent he said that he had nothing to say on State or national politics.

Mrs. Martin is with him and will accompany him home to-morrow. A plan is on foot to erect a monument in Washington to the memory of the late Dr. Walter Reed, surgeon in the army. Dr. Reed discovered the fact that yellow fever came to this country only through the agency of the mosquito, a discovery which has relegated that disease to the rear as a dangerous epidemic, and has ridged Cuba and the greater portion of South America of the disease.

Dr. Reed was a Virginian. Representative Glass, of the Sixth District, returned home to-day, after looking after some matters in the departments. He said to The Times-Dispatch correspondent that he had nothing to say on State or national politics.

address by Thomas Brown, the undertaker, involved in the recent church mudslide. The Rev. Graham, who created a sensation Thursday by accusing a member of the Moore Street Baptist Church, was taken to task by the Rev. George Reed, of the Spiller Academy, of Hampton. The Rev. Graham withdrew his remarks.
A contribution of $25 was sent in by the First Church of the Episcopate, which was reported recently captured by the "ants." The relations between the two conventions are as friendly as can be expected and the Rev. R. O. Jones, pastor of the Moore Street Baptist Church, was heard to say on the convention floor yesterday that only Prof. G. W. Hayes, of the Lynchburg Seminary, held the bodies apart. "We all like the Lynchburg Seminary," said he, "but when Hayes found himself keeping the two bodies separate he should have resigned. In case he resigns, it would be a question of a short time only before the conventions would again be as one."

MYERS HEARS OFFICIALLY
Acting Secretary of the Navy Writes to Trigg Yards Receiver.
Mr. Lilburn T. Myers, receiver for the W. R.
